“the area of benefit” means the parish of Threlkeld and the surrounding neighbourhood.

“the charity” means the charity identified at the beginning of this scheme.

“the committee” means the committee of management of the charity.

“the existing trustees” means the persons listed in part 1 of the schedule to this scheme.

“the members” means the members of the committee (who are the charity trustees of the charity) acting under this scheme.

“holding trustee” means Threlkeld Parish Council.

“the Commission” means the Charity Commission for England and Wales.

ADMINISTRATION

2. Administration

- (1) The charity is to be administered by the committee in accordance with this scheme. This scheme replaces the former trusts of the charity.
- (2) The charity will be administered by the existing trustees until the end of the first annual general meeting held under this scheme. They must administer the charity in accordance with the provisions of this scheme.

3. Name of the charity

The name of the charity is Threlkeld Village Hall Trust.

OBJECT

4. Object of the charity

- (1) The object of the charity is the provision and maintenance of a village hall for use by the inhabitants of the area of benefit without distinction of political, religious or other opinions, including use for:
 - (a) meetings, lectures and classes, and
 - (b) other forms of recreation and leisure-time occupation,with the object of improving the conditions of life for the inhabitants.
- (2) The land identified in part 2 of the schedule to this scheme must be retained by the committee for use for the object of the charity.

POWERS OF THE COMMITTEE

5. Powers of the committee

In addition to any other powers which they have, the committee may exercise the following powers in furtherance of the objects of the charity:

- (1) Power to sell, lease or otherwise dispose of all or any part of the charity's property which is not required by clause 4 above to be retained for use for the object of the charity. (The committee must comply with the restrictions on disposal imposed by section 36 of the Charities Act 1993, unless the sale, lease or disposal is excepted from these restrictions by section 36(9)(b) or (c) or section 36(10) of that Act.)
- (2) Power to raise funds. (The trustees must not undertake any permanent trading activity.)
- (3) Power to provide and maintain furniture and equipment for use in the village hall.
- (4) Power to appoint staff (who must not be members) and pay them reasonable remuneration, including pension provision for them and their dependants.
- (5) Power to insure against public liability and, if appropriate, employers' liability; and to insure the buildings of the charity to their full value against fire and all other usual risks (except to the extent that the buildings are insured against any of those risks by a tenant).
- (6) Power to co-operate with other charities, voluntary bodies and statutory authorities. The committee may exchange information and advice with them.
- (7) Power to make rules and regulations consistent with this scheme for the management of the charity.

COMMITTEE

6. Committee of management

- (1) Subject as provided in clause 8, there should be:

3 elected members; and three appointed members appointed in accordance with clause 8 of this scheme.

- (2) The members of the committee are the administrative trustees of the charity.
- (3) The term of office of all members will end at the end of the annual general meeting following the date on which they came into office. They may be re-elected or re-appointed.

7. Elected members

- (1) The elected members must be appointed at the annual general meeting.
- (2) The appointment will be effective from the end of the annual general meeting at which the appointment is made.

8. Appointed members

- (1) Threlkeld Parish Council must appoint 3 members.

NB. On 31 July 2014, the Trust Management Committee exercised its powers to amend the Governing document by resolving that this provision be replaced by a provision that one member each must be appointed by Threlkeld Parish Council; by Threlkeld Activities Association; and by Threlkeld Young People*

- (2) Any appointment must be made according to the ordinary practice of the appointing body.
- (3) An appointment must not be made more than 2 months before the annual general meeting.

NB. On the 11th November 2015, the Trust Management Committee exercised its powers by deleting sub-clause 3 (above).and replacing sub-clause 4 (below) with "An appointment will be effective rom the date on which the committee or their secretary or clerk are informed of the appointment."*

- (4) The appointment will be effective from the later of:
 - (a) the end of the annual general meeting; and
 - (b) the date on which the committee or their secretary or clerk are informed of the appointment.
- (5) The person appointed need not be a member of the relevant appointing body.

9. Co-opted members

The committee may appoint not more than 3 co-opted members. The appointment must be made at a special meeting of the committee. The appointment will be effective from the end of that meeting until the end of the following annual general meeting.

10. New members

The committee must give each new member on their first appointment:

- (1) a copy of [the governing documents of the charity, including] this scheme and any amendments made to it;
- (2) a copy of the charity's latest report and statement of accounts.

11. Register of members

- (1) The committee must keep a register of the name and address of every member and the dates on which their terms of office begin and end.
- (2) Before acting as a member, every member must (whether on their first appointment or on any later re-appointment) sign in the register a declaration of acceptance and willingness to act in the trusts of this scheme.
- (3) The committee must promptly report any vacancy in the office of appointed member to the body entitled to fill it.

12. Members not to have a personal interest

 - (a) a chairman to be chairman of their meetings; and
 - (b) a vice chairman.
- (2) The vice chairman will chair the meeting if the chairman is not present.

- (3) The members present at a meeting must elect one of their number to chair the meeting if the chairman or vice-chairman is not present or the office of chairman or vice-chairman is vacant.

15. Secretary and treasurer

The committee may appoint a secretary and treasurer. The offices may be held by:

- (1) members (who must not receive any reward for acting and who may be dismissed as secretary or treasurer at any time); or
- (2) some other suitable persons (who may be employed upon such reasonable terms, including terms as to notice, as the committee think fit).

MEETINGS OF COMMITTEE

16. Ordinary meetings

- (1) The committee must hold at least 2 ordinary meetings in each year.
- (2) Ordinary meetings require at least 10 days' notice.
- (3) The chairman, or any two members, may call an ordinary meeting at any time.

17. Special meetings

- (1) The chairman, or any two members, may call a special meeting at any time.
- (2) Special meetings require at least 7 days' notice, except that meetings to consider the appointment of a co-opted member require at least 21 days' notice.
- (3) The notice calling a special meeting must include details of the business to be transacted at the meeting.
- (4) A special meeting may, but need not, be held immediately before or after an ordinary meeting.

18. Quorum

- (1) Subject to sub-clause (2) below, no business may be transacted at a meeting unless there are present at least one-third of the total number of members.
- (2) If there are fewer than one third of the total number of members in office, the committee may take such action as is required for the purpose of filling vacancies in its number, but it may not do any other business.

19. Voting

- (1) Every matter must be decided by majority decision of the members present and voting at a duly convened meeting of the committee.

- (2) The chairman of the meeting may cast a second or casting vote only if there is a tied vote.

20. Recording of meetings

The committee must keep a proper record of its meetings. The record must be retained by:

- (1) the secretary; or
 - (2) another suitable person appointed by the committee to do so
- who must allow the members access to it.

21. Members to act jointly

The members must exercise their powers jointly, at properly convened meetings.

ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING

22. Annual general meeting

- (1) There must be an annual general meeting of the charity in January of each year, or as soon as possible thereafter.
- (2) All inhabitants of the area of benefit of 18 years and upward must be allowed to attend and vote at the meeting.
- (3) The first annual general meeting after the date of this scheme must be called by the existing trustees within 12 months of that date. Every other meeting must be called by the committee.
- (4) Public notice of the meeting must be given in the area of benefit at least 14 days before the meeting.
- (5) The chairman of the existing trustees will chair the first meeting. The chairman of the committee will chair subsequent meetings. The persons present must elect one of their number to chair the meeting if neither the chairman and vice-chairman are present.
- (6) At the meeting the committee must present the report and accounts for the last financial year. The existing trustees will present the report and accounts to the first meeting.
- (7) Every matter must be decided by majority decision of those present and voting. The chairman of the meeting may cast a second or casting vote only if there is a tied vote.

23. Transfer of property

The title to the land described in part 2 of the schedule to this scheme is transferred by this scheme to the holding trustee in trust for the charity.

24. Use of income and capital

- (1) The committee must firstly apply:
 - (a) the charity's income; and
 - (b) if the committee think fit, expendable endowmentin meeting the proper costs of administering the charity and of managing its assets (including the repair and insurance of its buildings).
- (2) After payment of these costs, the committee must apply the remaining income in furthering the object of the charity.
- (3) The committee may also apply expendable endowment for the object of the charity.

25. Sale of land

- (1) Subject to the provisions of this clause, the committee may sell the land identified in part 2 of the schedule. (The committee must comply with the restrictions on disposal imposed by section 36 of the Charities Act 1993, unless the disposal is excepted from these restrictions by section 36(9)(b) or (c) or section 36(10) of that Act.)
- (2) The committee may only sell the land if:
 - (a) the committee decide that the land is no longer required for use as a village hall; and
 - (b) the decision to sell is confirmed by a resolution passed at a meeting of the inhabitants of the area of benefit of 18 years and upward. At least 14 days' notice of the meeting, setting out the terms of the resolution, must be given.
- (3) The committee must invest the proceeds of any such sale in trust for the charity.
- (4) The committee may apply the income and expendable endowment [in furthering the object of the charity and] for general charitable purposes for the benefit of the inhabitants of the area of benefit.

AMENDMENT OF SCHEME

26. Amendment of scheme

- (1) Subject to the provisions of this clause, the provisions of this scheme may be amended.
- (2) The committee may resolve to add the names of other organisations operating in the area of benefit to the list in clause 8 of this scheme. The resolution must be passed at an ordinary meeting of the committee by not less than two thirds of the members of the committee.
- (3) Any other amendment must be made by a resolution passed at the annual general meeting. The notice of the meeting must include notice of the resolution, setting out the terms of the amendment proposed.
- (4) No amendment must be made which would:
 - (a) vary this clause;
 - (b) vary the definitions clause and clauses 4 (objects clause) and 25 (sale of land);
